Nuevo Mundo TV is the proud partner of the 3rd Edition of the International Haitian Film Festival of Montreal, 19-23 September 2007

Montreal, September 4th 2007–

Proud partner the International Haitian Film Festival of Montreal, Nuevo Mundo TV is pleased to invite you to explore in a festive atmosphere, the crucial issues facing the Haitian people and, in general, the people of many countries south of the equator.

Nuevo Mundo TV is honored to support the festival that proposes the truly latest Haitian film productions. There are many genres for many tastes: fiction, retrospectives, documentaries, short films and more. Exceptionally this year, the festival also presents, for the first time in North America, the international show of the photographer Celine Anaya Gauthier (« Esclaves au Paradis», «Slaves in paradise»). The show will be the staging for an international conference and a debate.

The objective of the festival is to inform on «other» cultures and encourage cultural diversity within the Quebec community. These objectives are fundamentally shared by Nuevo Mundo TV!

Nuevo Mundo TV, the new Canadian Spanish Language television channel is on air since March 13th 2007. Its programs are mostly produced in Canada by members of the Hispanic community. It is available on the digital cable system Illico of Videotron, channel 269.

The programming of Nuevo Mundo TV is composed of Canadian news, special reports on recent events, shows for kids and teens, magazines covering vital issues for new immigrants such as Finances, legal aspects, school systems, but also cooking, music, news on what's happening culturally, accompanied by telenovelas, films, documentaries and the necessary language courses for both Hispanics for English and French and, Canadians wishing to brush up their Spanish. Programs for Hispanics, and for Canadians who love Latin cultures.
